HARDING

A well-presented and light, 2 bedroom (1 with en-suite shower) first floor apartment situated within an exclusive purpose-built gated development adjoining Bristol's famous floating harbour, allocated parking space and well-stocked communal garden.

Key Features

- The apartment offers well-proportioned lateral accommodation on the first floor with gas central heating and double-glazed windows throughout.
- Constructed in 1997, Pooles Wharf Court is located adjacent to Bristol's historic floating harbour, much effort was taken to ensure that the materials and design features compliment this popular area of the city.
- The apartment forms part of an elegant block. As one initially enters the development there is a formal, well-stocked communal garden and striking, gated entrance feature to the development.
- Hotwells, along with neighbouring Clifton, was extremely fashionable during the 18th century due to its spa and bottled water and is still full of important reminders of its maritime past. Today the area combines access to the M5, M4 and M32 motorways with the convenience of being close to the main areas of employment, shopping and leisure that Bristol has to offer.
- Regular buses to and from the city, combined with the daily water bus services with landing stages in the city centre and Temple Meads mainline station.
- Accommodation: entrance vestibule, entrance hallway, sitting/dining room, separate kitchen, bedroom 1 with en-suite shower room, bedroom 2, family bathroom/wc.
- Outside: one allocated parking space, visitor parking and well-stocked communal garden.
- Lift and stairwell access provided.
- An ideal main home, harbourside pied-à-terre or buy to let investment opportunity.
