9a Dean Road,

£725,000

3 2 1

A beautifully refurbished three-bedroom garden flat extending to approximately 1,009 sq ft, with two bathrooms and a private rear garden.

Set within an attractive period property on Dean Road, the flat has been thoughtfully refurbished throughout, combining contemporary interiors with a number of retained period features. The accommodation is well proportioned and benefits from high ceilings and good natural light.

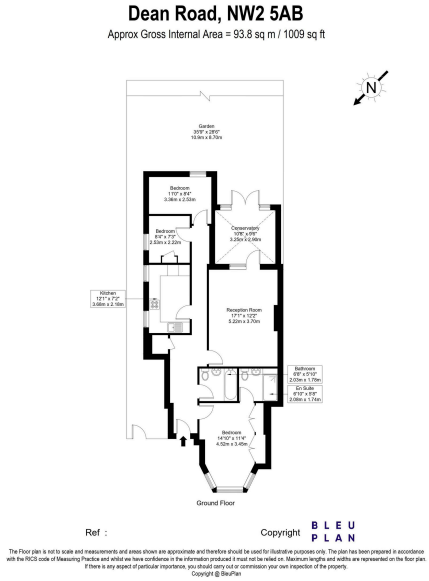

The reception room provides a generous space for both entertaining and everyday living, while the three bedrooms offer flexibility for family living, guests or working from home. There are two well-appointed bathrooms and a private rear garden, providing valuable outside space and a natural extension to the accommodation.

Dean Road is a popular residential road, with a mix of attractive period properties and a well-established local community. The amenities of Walm Lane and Willesden Green are close by, offering a good selection of cafés, restaurants, independent shops and everyday conveniences.

Willesden Green Underground station is within easy reach, providing Jubilee line services into central London, while Cricklewood station offers Thameslink connections. Gladstone Park is also nearby, providing extensive green space and recreational facilities.
