Positioned within the iconic Marine Gate development, this well-proportioned one-bedroom apartment offers breathtaking elevated views across Brighton Marina, the coastline and out to sea. The accommodation extends to approximately 69.5 sq. m. (748 sq. ft.) and is arranged to provide generous and well-balanced living space throughout. A spacious lounge/dining room (over 20 ft in length) forms the heart of the home, enjoying a light and airy feel and direct access onto a private balcony, perfectly placed to take in the far-reaching coastal and marina views. The separate kitchen is conveniently located off the hallway, offering workspace and storage potential. The property further benefits from a double bedroom with fitted storage, as well as a bathroom suite and additional hallway storage cupboards. The standout feature of this apartment is the private balcony, which provides impressive panoramic outlooks across both the sea and the South Downs, creating a truly unique vantage point. Marine Gate is ideally situated 1 mile to Brighton Marina, local amenities, coastal walks and transport links into Brighton city centre.

This property would make an ideal permanent residence, second home or investment opportunity, offering both space and exceptional views in a prestigious coastal setting.
