Location...

Ringmer is considered to be one of the largest villages in East Sussex. A village with a great sense of community and plenty to offer for those who want to take part, yet peaceful enough to enjoy the more rural surrounding for those that prefer the quieter village lifestyle.

Located in the heart of the village is a parade of well serviced, mostly independent shops, including a popular butcher, a Café, a bakery and the Morrisons Local houses the local Post Office. The village also offers a coffee shop, hairdressers, dentist, modern health centre and a pharmacy.

The village is flanked by South Downs National Park. There are beautiful and iconic walks all around and at the highest point, between Ringmer and Glynde provides magnificent far-reaching views to the River Ouse, the Ashdown Forest and across Lewes.

Ringmer hosts a plethora of sports and activity clubs catering for all ages including a football team, stoolball, cricket, bowls, croquet. More leisurely pursuits and clubs are held at the village hall, everything from amateur dramatics, to yoga or even the local history club. Nearby Lewes offers further options including golf, rugby, tennis, swimming, cycling and athletics to name a few.
