PROPERTY SUMMARY

This impressive detached house in the West Sussex village of Southbourne, believed to have been built in the early twentieth century, exudes the charm of a grand family home waiting to be restored to its former glory. It offers generous living space along with spacious outbuildings that could serve as annexe accommodation, subject to the necessary permissions, plus a large double garage with stairs to a roomy loft attic. Inside, you'll find an impressive entrance hall with a galleried staircase leading to the first floor, a beautiful front lounge/dining room featuring a characterful fireplace, a kitchen/breakfast room with utility, a study, four bedrooms and three bathrooms. Every room is generously proportioned and the property holds tremendous potential. Viewing is highly recommended to truly appreciate the size and possibilities here.
