THE LOCAL AREA

Radcliffe on Trent is a charming village that offers the perfect blend of tranquillity and convenience. The village boasts a wealth of amenities that cater for everyday needs and more. The village centre presents a convenience store, post office, library and a range of independent shops, together offering unique finds alongside everyday essentials. There is also a local butcher and bakery in the village, ensuring the essentials are only ever a short journey away.

Radcliffe on Trent enjoys village schools that range from nursery through to sixth form, putting a child's entire educational journey on the doorstep. It is well connected with excellent road and rail links. The village is accessible via the A52, which connects to Nottingham, Bingham, Grantham and the A46 for direct routes to Newark-on-Trent, Lincoln and Leicester as well as enjoying a regular and frequent bus service, and a direct train service to Nottingham.

SPITFIRE HOMES
