Newhall Street - Swindon

Bettermove are proud to present this two-bedroom mid-terraced house in Swindon, available with no forward chain.

Requiring significant renovation and modernisation throughout, this property presents an excellent opportunity for property developers, investors and buyers looking for a refurbishment project with the potential to add value.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors, offering two bedrooms and living accommodation with scope for improvement and transformation. The property requires substantial upgrading to bring it up to a modern standard, making it particularly appealing to those looking to renovate and potentially resell or retain as a rental investment.

Situated on Newhall Street in Swindon, the property benefits from a convenient location within easy reach of the town centre and a variety of local amenities, including shops, supermarkets, restaurants and other everyday facilities.

The area also offers transport connections, with Swindon railway station providing services to destinations including London Paddington, Bristol and Reading. The nearby M4 motorway offers convenient road access to surrounding towns and cities.

With significant potential for improvement, this is an exciting opportunity for buyers seeking a property renovation project. Early enquiries are encouraged.

All enquiries can be made through Bettermove.
