

667 Lower Rainham Road , ME8 7TY

Offers in excess of £600,000

Set along the ever-popular Lower Rainham Road, this characterful detached home offers an impressive blend of space, history and modern comfort. Once the foreman's house for the local Cement works, and later home to an engineer with a passion for steam engines, it carries a unique story that adds real charm to its already generous footprint.

The property welcomes you with a large driveway and a double garage, giving excellent parking and storage options. Inside, the layout flows beautifully, offering a choice of reception spaces that suit both busy family life and quieter moments. Natural light fills the rooms, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout, while the flexible arrangement of four bedrooms one with an adjoining loft room provides plenty of room for growing families, home working or guest accommodation.

The stunning kitchen sits at the heart of the home, opening onto the garden and offering a sociable space for cooking and gathering. Additional reception rooms, including a family room and playroom, give everyone their own corner to enjoy.

The rear garden is a standout feature. Thoughtfully landscaped and well maintained, it offers a peaceful retreat with established planting, a generous lawn and a smart seating area perfect for outdoor dining or simply unwinding at the end of the day.

Homes of this scale and character are rarely available in this part of Rainham. With its rich heritage, spacious interior and beautifully kept garden, this is a property that truly offers something special for those seeking a long-term family home in a well-connected and desirable location. Offered with NO ONWARD CHAIN.
