Haldon Road, SW18

A beautifully presented bay-fronted Victorian family home, combining period character with thoughtfully designed modern living. Set over three floors, the property offers generous and versatile accommodation, with three double bedrooms, three bathrooms and excellent entertaining space.

A welcoming entrance hallway leads to an elegant bay-fronted reception room, retaining a wealth of period character including the original fireplace, detailed cornicing and plantation shutters. To the rear is a second reception room, currently arranged as a dining room, which flows seamlessly into the impressive open-plan kitchen. The kitchen is well designed for family life and entertaining, with an island/breakfast area and direct access through sliding doors to the rear garden.

The first floor provides two spacious double bedrooms, both with built-in storage, together with a family bathroom and separate shower room. The second floor provides a further double bedroom with its own en-suite shower room.

To the rear, the property benefits from a particularly attractive south-facing garden. The garden is private and not overlooked, with generous paved and decked areas providing an ideal setting for outdoor dining and entertaining, together with established planting and a tranquil feel.
