GENERAL REMARKS AND LOCATION

The White House is a period property in a very convenient situation especially for the shopping centre of Truro and also the main-line railway station. Whilst very much an urban location the property is very close to Victoria Gardens, a little known public park centred on a traditional band-stand. the house has been updated and completely redecorated and evokes a feeling of light and space. There are 3 good size bedrooms, a combined bath and shower room, 2 main receptions, cloakroom and a kitchen/dining room with twin double glazed doors opening to a high-walled courtyard-type garden to the rear. There is gas fired central heating throughout.

The property is not "listed" but lies within the designated Truro Conservation Area.

Truro is renowned for its excellent shopping centre, fine selection of restaurants, bars, private and state schools and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The Hall for Cornwall is also a popular venue providing all year round entertainment and other cultural facilities include the Royal Cornwall Museum and the historic Cathedral.

THE ACCOMMODATION

Wherever possible traditional period features remain and in the main reception there are panelled window reveals and an intricate cornice ceiling. A turning staircase with a wide landing is typical of its era and there are panelled doors and high ceilings throughout.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):

GROUND FLOOR

entered via a traditional panelled front door and with coved ceiling and pendant light fitting.

SITTING ROOM

15'7" x 12'11" (4.75m x 3.94m)
