Location:

Berkhamsted is a thriving and highly sought-after market town in west Hertfordshire, approximately 30 minutes by train from London. Rich in history, the town played a notable role in 1066 when William the Conqueror was handed the English Crown here. Berkhamsted Castle, built shortly after, remains a significant historical landmark, with links to figures such as Geoffrey Chaucer and Thomas Becket.

Today, Berkhamsted offers an excellent blend of historic charm and modern convenience, with a wide range of shops, restaurants, and amenities, as well as outstanding transport connections by both road and rail.
