Underwood House Underhill
East Knoyle Salisbury

Property Description

Welcome to Underwood House - Situated amongst some of the most beautiful woodland scenery imaginable is this glorious six-bedroom, five-bathroom country home.

The tranquil setting of Underwood House is most impressive, enjoying a South-facing position and gazing fondly upon the expansive views of the South-West Wiltshire countryside from the property-wide balcony accessible by four of the bedrooms on the first floor.

The home, extended in 2005 to a staggering 3,372 square feet, is built on a plot of land somewhere in the region of 4.75 acres; and lends itself to multi-generational families and equestrian-minded buyers alike thanks to the versatile layout of bedroom suites across both floors of the home and the granted planning permission for stables, a double garage and feed room combined. This enormous home also has two separate staircases which can segregate the living accommodation if needed, without disrupting the flow throughout.

It's difficult to fully describe the lifestyle on offer here at Underwood House - come and have a look for yourself.
