Set in the charming village of Galilea, surrounded by nature and the tranquillity of the Serra de Tramuntana, this welcoming finca captures the essence of traditional Mallorcan living. It is a peaceful retreat where the silence, the views and the close connection with the landscape make everyday life feel special.

Offering approximately 224 m² of built area on a 485 m² plot, the property has been carefully maintained and retains the island's traditional character, combining rustic Mallorcan details with a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The heart of the house is its bright living room with a fireplace, which opens directly onto the terrace and garden, creating a natural connection between inside and out. The separate kitchen retains its Mediterranean character, while the house offers three bedrooms, one with a private terrace, and a fully renovated bathroom.

The true highlight is the wonderful garden of approximately 424 m²: a peaceful outdoor space designed to be enjoyed throughout the year. Surrounded by greenery and with a pleasant barbecue area, it is ideal for breakfast overlooking the mountains, long dinners beneath the stars or simply enjoying the silence and beauty of the setting. Open views across the valley and towards the Serra de Tramuntana provide a daily reminder of why Mallorca remains one of the Mediterranean's most sought-after destinations.

The centre of Galilea, with its restaurant and church, is only a few minutes away on foot. The finca therefore offers an ideal balance of privacy and convenience, combining the peace of the countryside with easy access to the village's amenities.
