The current owner says:

The property is in a fantastic location for the local shops, schools, parks and transport links.

A substantial and beautifully arranged six-bedroom period family home, offering in excess of 2,500 sq ft of versatile accommodation across three floors, with a private rear garden and cellar, ideally positioned on a desirable residential road in Acton.

This charming home is ideally suited to growing families or multi-generational living, with a layout that provides both generous entertaining space and excellent bedroom accommodation.

The ground floor is particularly well configured for modern living. A bright and spacious front reception room with a bay window sets the tone, leading through to a separate formal dining room, ideal for hosting. To the rear, a striking open-plan kitchen/reception space spans the width of the house, creating a natural hub of the home with direct access onto the garden—perfect for everyday family life and entertaining. A guest cloakroom and access to a useful cellar complete this level.

Across the upper floors, the property offers six well-proportioned bedrooms, arranged to provide flexibility for larger families, guest accommodation, or dedicated work-from-home space. The first floor comprises three generous double bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the top floor provides three further bedrooms and an additional shower room—ideal for independent living arrangements or older children.

Externally, the property benefits from both a front garden and a well-sized rear garden extending over 38 ft.

What's better:

This charming home is ideally suited to growing families or multi-generational living, with a layout that provides both generous entertaining space and excellent bedroom accommodation.
