

Morrish Road, London SW2 4EH

welcome to

Morrish Road, London

An exceptional freehold opportunity comprising two self-contained apartments, currently arranged across an imposing Victorian building extending to approximately 2,291 sq ft, offering clear potential to be reconfigured into a substantial single dwelling or retained as two income-generating units.

The ground floor is presently configured as a well-presented one/two double bedroom apartment, centred around an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and reception space, with doors opening directly onto the side return, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. The interior blends contemporary finishes with elegant period detailing, including high ceilings, ornate cornicing, ceiling roses, wooden flooring and a striking fireplace.

Above, the upper floors are arranged as a substantial four double bedroom apartment, offering generous proportions and a well-balanced layout ideally suited to family living and entertaining. The principal reception space is bright and inviting, complemented by a modern, well-appointed kitchen. All four bedrooms are comfortable doubles, while a private south-facing roof terrace offers an excellent setting for outdoor dining or relaxation.

Throughout, the property retains the scale and charm of its Victorian origins, enhanced by thoughtful modernisation and a cohesive finish. Morrish Road itself is a highly regarded, community-led street, known for its annual street party, book club and traditional local pub, ideally positioned just off Brixton Hill. The location offers an excellent balance of connectivity and lifestyle, with Brixton's vibrant amenities and Victoria Line services approximately a fifteen-minute walk away, alongside Streatham Hill station providing convenient routes into central London.
