welcome to

West Riddlesden Hall Scott Lane, Riddlesden Keighley

West Riddlesden Hall is a truly exceptional Grade I listed family home dating back to 1687, set within private grounds of approximately 1.3 acres with an additional paddock approaching 1 acre. Viewing is strongly recommended.

Steeped in history yet offering versatile family living, this six-bedroom residence combines period character, grandeur, and modern convenience. Approached via a sweeping private driveway, the house is tucked away for complete privacy, with beautifully maintained gardens, a gated courtyard, and ample parking including a double garage. The accommodation centres around a striking oak-panelled reception hall, with a series of elegant reception rooms, a fully fitted kitchen, snug, sunroom, and extensive bedrooms including a luxurious master suite with dressing area and en-suite. With historic features throughout, flexible living spaces, and additional potential for the grounds, West Riddlesden Hall is a rare and remarkable opportunity to own one of West Yorkshire's most distinguished period homes.
