Available for the first time in over fifty years and arranged over three floors, Wiggenshall Road is a substantial detached Victorian residence of notable scale. Formerly utilised as the Music Department for the Girls' Grammar School directly opposite, the property retains its original proportions and a number of period features, including fireplaces in the majority of rooms, and offers significant scope for modernisation and reconfiguration.

Requiring updating throughout, the property presents a clear opportunity to create a substantial family home or to explore alternative layouts suited to a variety of future uses (subject to the necessary consents). Generous grounds, extensive parking and outbuildings further enhance its flexibility.
