LOCATION:

The property is ideally situated on the edge of a popular residential area, bordered by attractive woodland belonging to the Hirsell Estate in Coldstream. Coldstream, known as the first Border town in Scotland, is steeped in history as the original home of the Earl of Home. The Hirsell Estate provides beautiful countryside walks, abundant wildlife, as well as a charming cafe and craft shops. Positioned just north of the Cheviot Hills and set along the banks of the River Tweed, renowned for its excellent salmon fishing, Coldstream offers a peaceful yet well-connected lifestyle. The town itself benefits from a wide range of local amenities, including pubs, shops, cafes, a community centre, as well as medical and dental services. With a strong sense of community, Coldstream is twinned with Bennecourt in France, adding to its unique character. The town is conveniently located approximately 15 miles from the East Coast mainline railway station at Berwick-upon-Tweed, and around 9 miles from Kelso, both of which provide a broader selection of amenities and services.

DESCRIPTION:
