Property Details

A characterful three double bedroom apartment occupying the top floor of a grand Victorian townhouse, with a secluded private outside area boasting panoramic views across the London skyline. This impressive home enjoys a prime position opposite Brockwell Park, blending original period features with generous proportions and an abundance of natural light. Accessed via stairs leading to a central hallway, the flat offers a flexible layout with three spacious double bedrooms and a separate reception room. A charming raised nook provides an ideal space to dine or work from home. The well-equipped kitchen includes ample storage and a practical serving hatch. Additional features include high ceilings, a feature fireplace, built-in storage, and scenic outlooks over Brockwell Park and central London. The bathroom includes a handy utility area with a washing machine and tumble dryer. A ceiling hatch with ladder leads to a private demised rooftop area, perfect for al fresco dining, entertaining, or simply enjoying the striking skyline. An elegant and versatile home in a sought-after location.
