STEP INSIDE:

From the moment you step inside, Bramley House impresses with an immediate sense of space and light. The welcoming entrance hall offers a refined first impression, with ample room for coats and footwear, while providing seamless access to the principal ground floor accommodation and the staircase rising to the first floor. The elegant sitting room is a beautifully proportioned space, featuring a characterful fireplace (currently unused by the present owners) and triple-aspect windows that bathe the room in natural light throughout the day. Adjacent is a highly versatile, second reception room, currently arranged as a guest suite and home office. This adaptable room lends itself effortlessly to a variety of uses, whether as a snug, studio, or additional reception space. A well-appointed cloakroom with WC and wash basin, along with generous under-stairs storage, ensures practicality is thoughtfully integrated into the home. Undoubtedly the heart of the property lies in the impressive open-plan kitchen, dining, and snug area — a superb contemporary space designed for both everyday living and entertaining. The snug area enjoys a delightful outlook over the garden, with bifold doors opening directly onto the patio, while a partially glazed roof floods the space with natural light, enhancing the connection between inside and out. The kitchen and dining area is equally well considered, offering ample space for a large dining table alongside extensive worktop and storage provisions. There is dedicated space for integrated appliances including a dishwasher, oven and hob, and a full-size fridge/freezer. A separate utility room provides further storage and preparation space, with room for laundry appliances, and benefits from direct access to the side pathway and garden.

The first floor continues the home's light and airy feel, with a window illuminating the landing and creating a bright, welcoming space. The principal suite is particularly impressive — a generous double bedroom enjoying dual-aspect views across the rear garden. This room is complemented by a stylish En-suite shower room, recently updated with contemporary fittings, and a spacious walk-in wardrobe offering excellent storage and organisation. Bedrooms two and three are both well-proportioned doubles, each offering ample space for furnishings, with bedroom three further benefitting from a built-in wardrobe. The fourth bedroom is a comfortable single room, enhanced by dual-aspect windows and a substantial built-in cupboard, making it ideal as a child's room, guest room, or study. The family bathroom is tastefully appointed, featuring a bath with overhead shower, WC, and wash basin.

SELLERS INSIGHT:

"Much-loved by our family for two generations, this warm and welcoming home has been the setting for countless special memories. We've loved the wonderfully private and secluded position, which offers the best of both worlds—peaceful surroundings with easy access to beautiful country walks right from the doorstep, while still being just a short stroll to the parks and central Bovey. The natural light, friendly neighbours, ample space for children to run round safely, and a kitchen made for our friends and family to gather are all key things we've loved about this home. It's been much loved and cared for and is now ready for its next chapter."
