SITUATION
Charmouth is a delightful village off the A35, situated in an AONB on the Jurassic coastline with a delightful beach with cafe, fossil centre and picturesque cliff top seating areas and walks. Much of the surrounding area is under the control of the National Trust and has many delightful coastal and inland walks and access to the South West coastal path. Lyme Regis is 3 miles away providing sailing, fishing, shops and restaurants. Axminster is 6 miles away with a mainline train station to London Waterloo. Exeter is 32 miles away with an international airport. The X53 and X51 Jurassic Coast buses run from the bus stop at the end of the lane connecting to Weymouth, Bridport, West Bay, Lyme Regis and Axminster.
