A well proportioned three bedroom end of terrace house with gardens to front and rear being conveniently located for access to the town and its' amenities.

Although in need of internal refurbishment and renovation to achieve its full potential the property offers the basis of a pleasant family home and is well situated for access to local schooling.

Internally the residence is nicely proportioned with both the lounge and kitchen / dining room enjoying a dual aspect and resulting in light and welcoming living space. The lounge has an electric fire suite and a pleasant outlook over the rear garden, whilst the kitchen / dining room is open plan with a pantry and access to the rear garden.

Upstairs are three bedrooms with useful built in wardrobes and a shower room with a thermostatic shower.

Outside the front garden provides some privacy being partly enclosed by mature shrubs and plants, whilst the rear garden enjoys a sunny aspect and has an outbuilding with an outside store room, toilet and adjacent store.

The accommodation in brief comprises an entrance hall, lounge, open plan kitchen & dining room, whilst upstairs there are three bedrooms and a shower room. The property benefits from double glazing and gas fired central heating.

Helston is widely regarded as the gateway to the stunning Lizard Peninsula, renowned for its picturesque coves, sandy beaches and dramatic coastline. The town offers an excellent range of amenities including national retailers, health centres, a cinema, and a leisure centre with indoor swimming pool. For families, several well-regarded primary schools are close by—Parc Eglos being particularly convenient for this property—along with a secondary school and sixth-form college. A university campus is located in nearby Penryn, approximately twelve miles away.
