ABOUT THE PROPERTY

An exceptionally welcoming and beautifully presented home, flooded with natural light and full of character. The impressive double-length reception room provides an elegant and versatile living space, seamlessly connecting to the stylish, open-plan kitchen, which has been creatively designed to maximise both function and aesthetic appeal. Throughout the ground floor, attractive ceramic flooring runs the full length of the property and features under-floor heating, adding a touch of luxury and warmth. The lower ground floor offers versatile additional accommodation, currently arranged as a generous study and a comfortable bedroom, ideal for guests, home working or flexible family living. The first and second floors comprise well-proportioned bedrooms, each enjoying excellent natural light, together with two contemporary bath/shower rooms. This charming home has been well finished throughout and offers a low maintenance landscaped rear garden, set one a popular road on the door step of Wimbledon Village and local amenities.
