Set within an attractive and well-maintained period conversion, this charming one-bedroom apartment occupies the third floor and enjoys a fantastic location just moments from the vibrant heart of Camden.

Offering approximately 336 sq. ft. of thoughtfully arranged living space, the property features a bright and inviting reception room with an open-plan kitchen, a well-proportioned double bedroom and a modern bathroom. The apartment is well-presented throughout, providing a comfortable and practical home in a highly sought-after location.

Ideally positioned within easy reach of Camden Market and its eclectic selection of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and entertainment venues. Excellent transport connections are available from Camden Town Underground Station, while the green open spaces of St Martin's Gardens and Regent's Park are just a short distance away.

An excellent opportunity for first-time buyers and investors seeking a conveniently located London property.
