THE PROPERTY

Sea View, as the name implies, enjoys wonderful far-reaching panoramic sea views along the Jurassic Coast to Portland, in a highly convenient location within easy reach of the town centre and seafront. It is end of terrace and one of only six houses, which were traditionally built with reconstituted stone-faced elevations in 1984, within the former grounds of the Kersbrook Hotel.

Under the current ownership since 2020, the house has been subject to a loft conversion to provide a new principal bedroom with en-suite shower room together with a whole number of improvements and upgrading to now provide a very well appointed and spacious home.

The many excellent features include gas-fired central heating with recently updated boiler, pressurised hot water system, high insulation, woodgrain style uPVC replacement double glazed windows, oak flooring, oak veneer doors, modern well equipped kitchen with double oven, electric ceramic hob, integrated dishwasher, fridge, freezer and washing machine, modern contemporary sanitaryware with fully tiled bathroom and en-suite shower room, built-in wardrobes and fitted carpets to the upper floors and ceramic tiled flooring to the kitchen/dining room.

The spacious and well presented accommodation is arranged now over three floors, taking advantage of the wonderful sea views along the Jurassic Coast to Portland beyond.

OUTSIDE

Allocated parking space to rear of the house.

The property is set slightly elevated and back from the road with a large front courtyard with paved terracing, well stocked part raised beds and side pedestrian gate. The rear garden comprises a sheltered courtyard and extends to the side, being principally paved with flower and shrub beds and steps up to a raised paved terrace. Rear pedestrian gate to the parking space.
