The Property

Situated on the outskirts of Chapel-en-le-Frith, this recently refurbished three bedroom semi-detached property is located on Frith View and benefits from close proximity to open countryside whilst still being conveniently located to the town centre. Chapel-en-le-Frith offers an excellent range of local amenities including Chapel-en-le-Frith High School, leisure centre and train station, all within walking distance of the property. The accommodation to the ground floor comprises an entrance porch/cloakroom and an expansive living room, flooded with natural light as it benefits from a large south-facing window. The sleek and modern kitchen/diner offers ample space for entertaining and benefits from a convenient alcove, currently housing the fridge. The property features a family bathroom, two double bedrooms and a versatile third bedroom, ideal for a nursery or those seeking the increasingly in demand work-from-home space. The master bedroom has generous floor space, easily accommodating a large dressing area and once again enjoys beautiful natural light. Externally, the property has driveway parking, a single garage, and a secure rear garden featuring a patio area and fenced lawn. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all this home has to offer.
