Denise White Agent Comments

Situated in a popular and well-established residential area of Leek, this two bedroom semi-detached home offers well-proportioned accommodation throughout and would make an ideal home for couples, small families or individuals alike. The property benefits from a lounge, fitted kitchen with useful storage cupboard, downstairs WC, two bedrooms and a family bathroom. The rear extension also provides an additional reception space overlooking the garden, offering the flexibility to be used as a dining room, family space or home office depending on the occupier's needs. The property also benefits from gas central heating with a combination boiler and uPVC double glazing throughout.

Externally, the property has a drive to the front providing off-road parking, while to the rear is a good-sized garden, laid mainly to lawn with a paved pathway, patio area and garden shed.

The property is just a short drive from Leek town centre and its range of amenities, as well as local shops, schools and commuter routes, making it a convenient location for everyday living.

Location

Situated within the popular market town of Leek, often referred to as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', the property enjoys easy access to a wide range of local amenities, independent shops, cafés, restaurants and traditional markets.

Leek is renowned for its rich heritage, vibrant town centre and strong sense of community, whilst also providing excellent access to the surrounding Staffordshire Moorlands countryside. Nearby attractions include The Roaches, Rudyard Lake and Tittesworth Water, offering a wealth of opportunities for walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits.

The town benefits from a variety of supermarkets, schools, healthcare facilities and leisure amenities, making it an ideal location for those seeking a balance between town convenience and countryside living.
