HERE TO GET you THERE

Set within the beautifully converted Victorian Cannon Brewery, this stunning one-bedroom loft-style apartment offers 576 sq ft of characterful living space in the heart of Clerkenwell. Occupying the first floor of this sought-after warehouse conversion, the property seamlessly blends industrial heritage with contemporary design.

The apartment features impressive ceiling heights, exposed brickwork and original beams, creating a wonderful sense of volume and authenticity throughout. The spacious open-plan reception room and kitchen is flooded with natural light via full-height French doors, opening directly onto an exceptional private terrace measuring approximately 21'3" x 16'0" — a rare and tranquil outdoor entertaining space in such a central London location.

The accommodation further comprises a generous double bedroom, modern bathroom and excellent built-in storage. The stylish interior complements the building's warehouse aesthetic, with hardwood flooring and large windows enhancing the bright and airy feel.

Cannon Brewery is an iconic converted Victorian brewery ideally positioned on St John Street, moments from the vibrant restaurants, cafés and boutiques of Clerkenwell, Exmouth Market and Upper Street. Farringdon, Barbican and Angel stations are all within easy reach, providing superb transport links across London.

A unique warehouse apartment with outstanding character and an enviable private terrace in one of Central London's most desirable neighbourhoods.
