Description

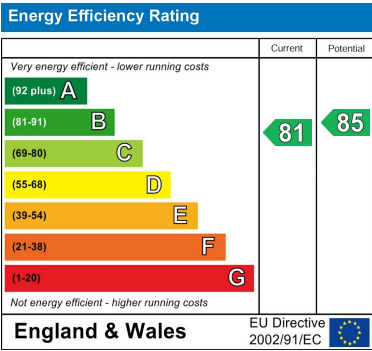

A beautifully refurbished lower ground floor apartment in the heart of Notting Hill, finished to an exceptional standard throughout. The generous open-plan living space features a striking two-tone kitchen with charcoal and white cabinetry, marble-effect splashback and fully integrated appliances, complemented by a built-in dining banquette and light oak flooring.

The separate bedroom offers a calm, boutique feel with a feature dark accent wall and full-length mirror, whilst a glazed internal window adds a charming period touch. The contemporary bathroom is finished with marble-effect tiling, rain head shower, floating oak vanity and heated towel rail.
