Asking Price £450,000

Welcome to this outstanding, fully extended and fully refurbished three double bedroom bungalow set in the ever-popular Warden Hill Catchment area. This fine property comes complete with new kitchen, new bathroom, new electrics and new plumbing throughout.

This immaculate single-story bungalow must be one of the finest and most complete restoration homes we have seen in a long time. From the new front drive to the newly laid rear garden, everything has been replaced with replastered walls, with new electrics and central heating. The ceilings have been replastered too. The rear extension houses a brand new fully fitted kitchen creating the highly desirable kitchen/Diner / day-space, often requested by buyers.

Small attentions to detail include a small side extension to the old kitchen to create a third double bedroom, a huge undertaking for minimal benefit, but all designed purely for the comfort of the buyer, and the result is breathtaking.

The accommodation on offer includes:

Ground Floor

The side located entrance gives access to the entrance hall. The two traditional bedrooms are both front facing. The bathroom has all new fittings throughout. A further door gives access to the living room with a door off to one side leading to the third bedroom. Across the back of the property is an exceptional 23' x 13' kitchen/dining room, fully fitted with all new fittings and appliances.

Outside

The frontage provides ample parking for vehicles; the side access has been well landscaped with clean simple lines. The rear garden enjoys a good degree of privacy and, although the property has been extended, there is still a good sized newly laid patio and lawned garden.

Summary

Here we have, what can only be described as the closest thing to a new bungalow as you will ever see. The owner (a local Gloucestershire man) has an enormous amount of pride in this project, and we are convinced the buyer will be just as proud to own this wonderful labour of love.
