Tucked away in the pretty village of Bothenhampton, just outside Bridport, this characterful period cottage is full of charm and warmth. With three good-sized bedrooms and just under 1,000 square feet of space, it's the perfect fit for families, couples, or anyone dreaming of a peaceful Dorset retreat.

With history stretching back over a century, the cottage is of traditional construction, built in brick and rendered under a slate roof, and still holds onto its lovely original features while offering the comfort and practicality of modern living. One of its real highlights is the generous garden – ideal if you love being outdoors, whether that's relaxing on a sunny afternoon, gardening, or entertaining friends and family.

Set on Main Street, the home also benefits from handy on-street parking. You'll enjoy the friendly village atmosphere while being just a short stroll or drive into Bridport's bustling town centre, with its great mix of shops, cafés, and local amenities.

This cottage is a wonderful choice if you're looking for the charm of a period home combined with the ease of modern life. Whether as your main home or a getaway in one of Dorset's most sought-after spots, it's a place you'll fall in love with.
