Your first home should be exciting, not overwhelming, and this apartment gets that balance just right. Bought by the current owner before later becoming a home he shared with his wife, it's easy to see why it appealed. Freshly decorated throughout, this two-bedroom second-floor apartment is ready for someone else to move straight in and make it their own. With an open-plan living space, Juliet balcony, two bathrooms, a garage and the Wyrley & Essington Canal right on your doorstep, it's a home that offers more than just four walls. Whether you're buying on your own or together, this could be exactly what you've been waiting for.
