The Avenue

Durham City, DH1 4ED

Set across three impeccably presented floors, this exceptional home seamlessly blends refined period elegance with modern living. A wealth of original features has been thoughtfully preserved, including beautifully restored sash windows, multiple fireplaces and a striking black limestone floor within the kitchen. Original cornicing, ceiling roses, deep skirting boards and internal doors remain throughout, with even the traditional doorbell retained, enhancing the home's timeless character.

The accommodation is introduced via an inviting entrance hallway, leading to an elegant living room positioned to the front elevation. Featuring a bay window, this refined space is ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. To the rear, a further well-proportioned and versatile room, currently utilised as a double bedroom or formal dining room, enjoys elevated views across the surrounding rooftops and completes this level.

The lower ground floor reveals a superb open-plan living, kitchen and dining space that forms the heart of the home, perfectly suited to modern lifestyles, social gatherings and entertaining. This level is further complemented by a stylish contemporary wet room and a separate WC.

An ornate original staircase rises to the first floor, providing access to two generous double bedrooms, the rear enjoying elevated views and offering an ideal space for home working. A further single bedroom and a sleek modern shower room complete the accommodation.

Externally, the property benefits from a charming town garden to the front and a private rear garden with lawn and Welsh slate patio, ideal for alfresco living. A rebuilt outhouse using authentic bricks provides useful storage, while a rear gate opens onto the lane, offering elevated views across Durham and the surrounding rooftops.

Other notable upgrades of this fabulous home include, new gas central heating boiler, repointing, and the the Sash windows have been reconditioned to include draft excluders.

Location

The Avenue enjoys a prime city-centre setting, offering immediate access to an outstanding range of local amenities. Just a short stroll away, Durham's vibrant high street provides an excellent mix of independent boutiques, national retailers and everyday convenience shopping. Residents are also perfectly placed to enjoy a superb choice of cafés, bars and restaurants, many set along the picturesque riverside — ideal for socialising and leisure time. A variety of gyms, leisure facilities and scenic walking routes along the River Wear further enhance the lifestyle on offer.

For families, the location is particularly attractive, lying within reach of highly regarded schools and the renowned Durham University, making the area consistently sought-after.

Transport connections are exceptional. Durham Railway Station is within easy walking distance, providing regular mainline services to Newcastle, Sunderland, York and London, making it ideal for commuters. The city's bus station is also close by, offering extensive local and regional routes.

For those travelling by car, the nearby A690 offers direct links to the A1 (M), ensuring straightforward access both north and south, as well as to the wider North East road network. This superb connectivity, combined with the wealth of amenities on the doorstep, makes The Avenue an exceptionally convenient and desirable place to live.
