Description

This charming character cottage will suit couples, small families or commuters wanting a peaceful rural lifestyle with easy city access, offering space, comfort and a strong sense of countryside living. The home blends period features with practical living, creating a warm and welcoming space from the moment you step inside.

Set within a semi rural village location, the property enjoys a strong sense of community while still being well connected for everyday needs. Local walks, open land and surrounding countryside make it ideal for those who enjoy outdoor living, whether that means walking, cycling or simply taking in the peaceful views. For commuters, the location works especially well, with Bentley station just a short five minute walk away, offering fast and direct trains into London, making it ideal for those who need to travel but want to return to the peace and quiet of the countryside at the end of the day. Nearby towns like Farnham & Alton provide access to shops, schools and other amenities, ensuring that daily life remains convenient while still enjoying a rural setting. The balance between accessibility and tranquillity is a key part of the appeal, making this home well suited to buyers who want the best of both worlds. Whether it is the charm of the cottage, the generous garden, or the easy access to transport, this property offers a lifestyle that is both practical and rewarding.
