PROPERTY FEATURES

- Idyllic period property in pretty village near Frome
- Four bedrooms
- Three bathrooms
- Generous family kitchen/diner
- spacious garden
- Parking
- Not listed
- Outstanding, panoramic views
- Excellent transport links

Dating back to 1750, this charming attached period property enjoys a wonderfully peaceful position in the heart of the pretty village of Nunney, on the outskirts of the popular town of Frome. With far-reaching views over an ever-changing woodland landscape, the house has a rare sense of tranquillity and privacy, while remaining part of a vibrant village community. 27 Horn Street is a characterful and versatile family home, with well-proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors.

The generous country-style kitchen forms the heart of the house, with original beams, tiled flooring and ample space for both dining and entertaining. From here, a utility room and downstairs cloakroom are conveniently positioned. The elegant sitting room is particularly special, with three floor-to-ceiling windows framing the uninterrupted woodland views beyond. The room opens directly onto a large decking area, creating a wonderful extension to the living space and an idyllic spot for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply relaxing while enjoying the spectacular views.

On the first floor, a generous open landing leads to two double bedrooms, both with en-suite bathrooms and walk-in wardrobes. The principal bedroom is flooded with natural light through further floor-to-ceiling windows, making the most of the dramatic views. A second staircase rises to the top floor, where there are two further bedrooms and a family bathroom, providing excellent flexibility for family living, guests or home working.

Outside

The property has private parking, while pretty stone steps lead down through the terraced garden. A combination of paved terraces, lawn and decking creates a series of inviting spaces for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply sitting and enjoying the spectacular woodland backdrop. The garden slopes gently away from the house and extends down to a brook, adding to the wonderfully peaceful atmosphere.

Situation

Nunney is a particularly special Somerset village, renowned for its strong community spirit and picturesque setting. At its heart are the impressive remains of the 14th-century moated Nunney Castle, rising dramatically from the centre of the village and providing a unique focal point. The village has an excellent range of amenities for everyday life, including a popular pub, village shop, church, village hall and coffee shop. The annual village fete is a much-loved event, attracting visitors from across the surrounding area. The fashionable market town of Frome is approximately five minutes by car and offers an excellent range of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities. The award-winning Frome Independent street market takes place on the first Sunday of each month and has become one of the town's most popular attractions. The equally fashionable town of Bruton is approximately 15 minutes away and is renowned for its thriving cultural and culinary scene. The internationally acclaimed Osip, just south of Bruton, offers an exceptional dining experience, while Hauser & Wirth Somerset is home to its renowned gallery, gardens and Da Costa Italian restaurant.

Shops

The town also offers a superb selection of independent shops, galleries, restaurants and cafés, while the much-loved Babington House is just a few miles away. The beautiful city of Bath is approximately 35 minutes away and offers an exceptional range of cultural, historical and recreational attractions.

Transport

Communications are excellent, with mainline railway stations at Frome and Castle Cary providing services to London Paddington, while Bristol Airport is approximately 45 minutes to the west. S

Schools

Nunney First School is rated Good with Outstanding Features by Ofsted and provides a popular local option, with secondary schooling available in Frome. Sexey's School in Bruton is an established state day and boarding school. The area is also exceptionally well served by independent schools, including All Hallows Prep, Downside, King's Bruton, Bruton School for Girls and several highly regarded schools in Bath, including Prior Park, Monkton Combe and King Edward's.

Directions

From Frome take the A361 towards Nunney. At the Nunney Catch roundabout take the fourth exit (passing the garage). Continue into Nunney and take a left turning (over the little bridge). Take the next left and continue up the hill and 27 Horn Street is the white house on your left.
