A rare opportunity to acquire a substantial home on one of Chiswick's most desirable residential roads. Positioned on sought-after Barrowgate Road, this impressive property offers exceptional scope for refurbishment, extension, or complete redevelopment (subject to the necessary planning permissions), making it ideal for developers, investors, or families seeking to create a bespoke West London residence. The existing house extends to approximately 2,380 sq ft and occupies a generous 0.15-acre plot. Both the front and rear gardens measure approximately 40 feet in width, while the rear garden extends to around 89 feet deep, providing extensive outdoor space and significant potential for enhancement or expansion. The property also benefits from air conditioning to the upper floor. Offering enormous potential in a prime W4 location, this is a superb chance to secure a sizeable plot in the heart of Chiswick and create a truly exceptional family home tailored to individual requirements.

Barrowgate Road is a wide, tree-lined avenue ideally positioned close to Chiswick High Road and the beautiful grounds of Chiswick House and Gardens. An excellent selection of boutiques, cafés, restaurants, and bars are all within easy reach, contributing to the area's enduring appeal. The property is conveniently located between Turnham Green Underground Station and Chiswick Park Underground Station, both providing District line services into Central London. The West End is also readily accessible by car, while the nearby A4 offers excellent connections to the M4 and Heathrow Airport. One of the area's principal attractions for families relocating from Central London or overseas is access to a number of highly regarded independent schools, including The Latymer Upper School, The Harroddian School and St Paul's School, together with several other outstanding educational options nearby.
