Quietly Positioned One-Bedroom Apartment in Haydon End

Tucked away in a peaceful and secluded part of Vistula Crescent, this well-presented one-bedroom apartment offers comfortable, contemporary living in a convenient North Swindon location.

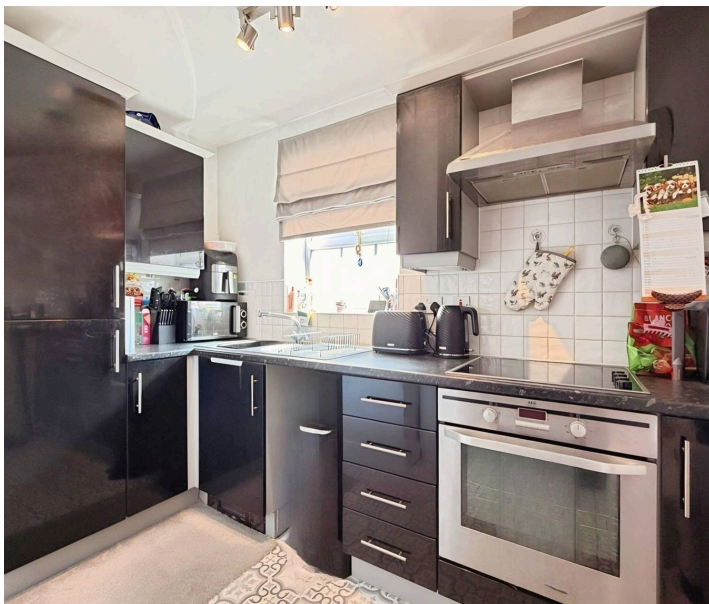

Stepping inside, the apartment has a welcoming and homely feel, with a well-proportioned layout that makes excellent use of the available space. The main living area provides a comfortable setting for relaxing and entertaining, with plenty of flexibility for creating distinct living and dining areas.

The modern fitted kitchen is practical and neatly arranged, providing a good range of storage and workspace while maintaining a clean, contemporary appearance. White goods will be included as part of the sale, providing added convenience for the new owner and making the property ready to move into or let.

The bedroom offers a comfortable and peaceful retreat, with ample space for a double bed and additional bedroom furniture. Its neutral presentation provides a versatile backdrop for a new owner or tenant to make the space their own.

A well-appointed bathroom completes the accommodation, offering a clean and functional space finished in a contemporary style.
