Introduction

Brick Corner House is a stunning Grade II listed home in the heart of the charming village of Orleton. Full of character and history, this beautifully maintained three-storey property blends 18th-century charm with modern touches like an oak-framed lounge, gorgeous gardens, and even a summerhouse studio. It's the perfect mix of village life, space, and style.

Property Description

The ground floor of Brick Corner House seamlessly blends character and functionality, starting with the stunning oak-framed lounge featuring a vaulted ceiling, tiled floor, wood-burning stove, and French doors that open onto the garden, perfect for both cosy evenings and summer entertaining. A glazed atrium hallway connects the living areas to the country-style kitchen, which is well-appointed with a central island, Rangemaster cooker, integrated dishwasher, and convenient access to the rear parking area. The atmospheric dining room is anchored by a large inglenook fireplace and opens directly onto a charming front courtyard, ideal for hosting or relaxed family meals. A separate study provides a quiet, dual-aspect workspace with fitted storage, while the practical utility room includes a Belfast sink, additional cabinetry, and a cloakroom. Completing the ground floor is a cellar accessed via the dining room, offering useful additional storage.

The upper floors offer generous and well-appointed accommodation, beginning on the first floor with two spacious double bedrooms enjoying views to the front and rear, served by a large family bathroom complete with a walk-in shower, full-size bath, and contemporary fittings. The second floor hosts the impressive principal bedroom, featuring a vaulted ceiling, built-in wardrobes, and far-reaching views across the village. A further double guest bedroom benefits from its own modern en-suite shower room with Velux window, while a versatile dressing room or additional storage area is accessed from the landing, adding to the flexibility of the space.

Location - Why Orleton?

Orleton is one of Herefordshire's most desirable villages, complete with a village shop, post office, two pubs (including the community-run Boot Inn), primary school, and GP surgery. The property falls within the catchment area for the highly regarded Wigmore Secondary School, with several independent schools also nearby. The property offers easy access to Ludlow via the B4361, with country walks and Mortimer Forest close by.

Outside & Grounds

The beautifully landscaped wraparound gardens at Brick Corner House are a true highlight, thoughtfully terraced with stone walls, vibrant planting, mature trees, and meandering pathways that create a sense of peace and seclusion. A south-facing courtyard and terrace provide the perfect setting for outdoor dining or relaxing in the sun. At the top of the garden, a fully powered summerhouse / studio enjoys elevated views over the rooftops and surrounding countryside, ideal as a creative workspace or tranquil retreat. The grounds also include a greenhouse, raised vegetable beds, a woodland garden, and a private, enclosed frontage with gated access. To the side of the property, there is off-road parking for several vehicles.
