Situation

Threshing House is situated within a most attractive courtyard of six barn conversions. Lying under a mile from the sought after town of Tenbury Wells, we understand the property was converted in around 1990.

Tenbury Wells is a delightful small Worcestershire market town close to the Shropshire and Herefordshire borders. It lies at the confluence of the Kyre Brook and the River Teme. Historically the town had a much sought after spa which finally closed in 1939. A stroll through the streets of Tenbury is a very pleasant experience taking in a number of fine historic buildings. The town provides an extensive range of amenities. These include both junior and senior schools, a range of independent shops, cafes, pubs and restaurants, a Tesco supermarket, the glorious historic Art Deco theatre and cinema, Doctors, Dentists and Veterinary surgeries and a leisure centre with gym and swimming pool.

The private educational sector is well catered for to include Moor Park near Ludlow, Lucton School, Hereford Cathedral School, Worcester Royal Grammar School and Kings School Worcester.

The beautiful and highly regarded architectural gem of Ludlow is readily accessible.

A Marks and Spencer food store is due to open near to Ludlow in the imminent future.

Both Ludlow and the close by town of Leominster have a mainline railway station with direct connections to Manchester and North and Cardiff and beyond to the South.

The Cathedral Cities of Worcester and Hereford are also very accessible. As is the Wyre Forest with its three principal towns.

Description

This character country house is enhanced by some wonderful, exposed timbers. The spacious character accommodation is approached by a timber entrance door which leads to the generous lounge. This includes a substantial full height brick fireplace with Villager wood burning stove, timbered ceiling and range of fitted book/display shelving together with exposed brickwork. Twin doors lead to a double-glazed conservatory with a very pleasant garden aspect with views beyond. The delightful dining kitchen has a range of wall and floor mounted units, sink unit, recess for electric cooker with extractor over, space for tall fridge freezer. There are exposed beams and brickwork and an excellent dining area ideal for entertaining and family living.

Beyond this is a utility room wall mounted storage cupboards, Belfast sink unit, plumbing for washing machine and dishwasher, cupboard and door to rear garden.

The first floor provides a central landing with high ceiling, shelved linen cupboard and fine rear views.

The house has three double bedrooms, several with built in wardrobes. There is an en-suite shower room to the master bedroom together with a separate family bathroom.

Outside

Carparking and undesignated visitors space.

Attractive rear gardens with lawn, several patios and quite delightful views over the Valley. There is a useful timber garden shed and outside tap.
