An impressive detached bungalow showcasing three generous reception rooms, three well-proportioned double bedrooms, and two bathrooms. Occupying a desirable position, the property enjoys a beautifully maintained south-west facing garden, ideal for afternoon and evening sun, and is further enhanced by a detached double garage.

INTERNAL

Built in 2002, this detached bungalow is thoughtfully arranged and begins with a large, welcoming entrance hall. From here, inviting double doors open into the dining room, while a further door leads to the separate living room, which features an attractive focal fireplace and direct access to the conservatory, creating an ideal space for relaxation. The kitchen sits adjacent to the dining room and has been recently refitted by the current owner, showcasing stylish neutral shaker-style units complemented by integrated appliances, offering both practicality and timeless appeal. The bungalow benefits from an excellent layout, with the bedroom accommodation positioned to one side of the hallway and the living areas to the other, enhancing privacy and flow throughout the home. The bedroom wing comprises three well-proportioned double bedrooms, all fitted with built-in wardrobes and drawers in the main bedroom. The principal bedroom is further enhanced by a bright and en-suite shower room. Completing the accommodation is a spacious family bathroom.

EXTERNAL

The property sits on a generous plot, with the main garden enjoying a highly desirable south-west facing aspect, perfect for maximising afternoon and evening sunlight. The garden is predominantly laid to lawn and fully enclosed by fencing, offering a good space outdoor enjoyment. To the front, the driveway leads to the detached garage and provides off-road parking for two vehicles.

SITUATED

This charming property is located in the desirable area of High Salvington, within easy reach of the South Downs National Park. High Salvington is known for its historical windmill and the popular 'Refreshment Rooms,' which offers good coffee, a micro bar, and a convenience store. Worthing town centre and seafront are approximately 3 miles away, providing a variety of shops, restaurants, and leisure activities. The A24 and A27, situated at the foot of the hill, offer convenient access to the nearby towns of Horsham, Brighton, and Chichester. The area is well-served by schools of various denominations, including the highly regarded Vale First and Middle School.
