Situation

Portgate is a rural hamlet situated between the West Devon villages of Lifton and Lewdown, both of which are well served by local amenities including a doctors surgery, schools, public houses and a local shop at Lifton. Portgate also offers good access to the three market towns of Launceston, Okehampton and Tavistock where there are a far larger range of amenities. The A30 is accessed via Lifton and provides a direct route to the West of Cornwall and into Devon and the city of Exeter. There are numerous local attractions which include beautiful walks and opportunities for sailing enthusiasts at Roadford Lake and nearby Dartmoor National Park.

Directions

The postcode is EX20 4PX. From Launceston, exit the town using Kensey Hill and follow the signposts to Lifton and drive through Polson, Liftondown and Lifton. Follow the road through the village and out the other side and after a short distance you will enter Portgate. Turn right signposted Dippertown/Sydenham. Drive down the will where the cottage will be seen on your left. WhatThreeWords:powder.revealing.herb
