70 High Road Loughton, IG10 4QU

Located on High Road in Loughton, this four-bedroom detached family home combines modern style with rich historical character.

Constructed in the mid-1990s, the property forms part of a unique development on the former grounds of Loughton School – a site once home to renowned author and Japanese art expert Arthur Morrison at Salcombe House (1863–1945).

Inside, a bright and welcoming entrance hall leads to a living room with herringbone flooring, flowing seamlessly into a dining room with rear garden access. The ground floor also features a newly fitted kitchen, a utility area, and a convenient downstairs WC. The utility room provides access to an integral garage.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts four bedrooms, with the two largest benefiting from fitted wardrobes. There are two bathrooms, including an en-suite to the main bedroom.

Externally, the property boasts a sunny west-facing garden and a large, gated private driveway. It is just a short walk to Loughton High Road and Central Line station, shops, cafés, and local amenities.

WHY LOUGHTON?

Loughton is an extremely sought-after area. The High Road is the centre point and covers all essential needs from supermarkets such as M&S, Sainsburys and Morrisons to popular cafes, coffee shops and restaurants. Loughton Cricket Club, Bowling Club and the newly renovated Loughton Leisure Centre are all situated just off the High Road and offer sporting facilities and active lifestyle opportunities for all ages. In terms of schools there are a choice of both private and highly regarded state schools in the area. The wonderful Epping Forest offers multiple areas to go for a bike ride, a run, or a Sunday stroll. Loughton Central Line Station provides easy access into The City and West End.
