An older style detached house in need of complete renovation. The property was built in 1936 with the current owner's family moving in during 1940. Many original period features remain, including doors with Bakelite handles, architraves, skirtings, ceiling's, floor boards, fireplaces and Bakelite switches. The house has not been lived in since 1997.

To the ground floor are three reception rooms, a cloakroom and a kitchen which is accessed via a covered passageway in the 'lean-to' part of the property. To the first floor are three rooms and a small landing area with access to the loft space.

Outside to the rear are generous size gardens laid mainly to lawn with two sheds. There is vehicular access to the rear of the property which includes a concrete hard standing for two vehicles. Access is via an unmade lane which the present owner has used for many years.
