Weymouth is a picturesque seaside town located midway along the stunning Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and lies just seven miles south of the historic county town of Dorchester. Renowned for its golden sandy beaches, traditional promenade, and vibrant harbor. In 2012, the town gained recognition as the host of the sailing events for the London Olympics, alongside neighboring Portland, resulting in improved transport links, including the construction of a relief road and an extensive network of cycle paths. The town offers a wide range of amenities, from independent shops and restaurants to leisure facilities and healthcare services, as well as a selection of schools. Weymouth is serviced by mainline train links to London Waterloo and Bristol Temple Meads and a regular bus service to the County town of Dorchester.

On approaching the property, a private driveway leads down the side of the house, providing access to parking and the outhouse situated to the rear. A part-glazed door opens into a welcoming entrance hallway, which provides access to all ground floor accommodation, along with a useful storage space beneath the stairs rising to the first floor. The hallway is tastefully decorated and features attractive oak flooring, which continues into the bright and generously sized lounge. The lounge enjoys a front-aspect window and a fireplace with mantel and surround, creating a cosy focal point. The versatile dining room also benefits from a front aspect and offers ample space for dining furniture. The modern kitchen is well proportioned and fitted with a range of wall and base units, complemented by attractive wooden work surfaces. It features a double oven and an electric hob with extractor above. To the rear, additional units and work surface incorporate an integrated dishwasher and sink with mixer tap. There is also further cupboard space providing excellent storage, room for freestanding appliances, and a door leading to a secondary entrance to the property. Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned double bedrooms. Bedrooms one and two benefit from front-aspect windows, while bedroom three enjoys a rear-aspect outlook. The rooms continue the bright and spacious feel, enhanced by high ceilings, and are all finished with carpet. The generously sized bathroom is fully tiled and comprises a bath with hand shower attachment, a separate shower cubicle, WC, and wash hand basin. Additionally, there are two large double storage cupboards, and the room is finished with attractive wood-effect flooring.

Externally, the property benefits from a private and beautifully maintained wraparound garden, mainly laid to lawn, with mature trees and shrubs providing colour and texture. The home also features a garage, which benefits from power, lighting, and a water connection. In addition, a lean-to sits adjacent to the entrance of the home, offering further storage and a WC.
