Long Melford is a fine village characterised by its wide variety of architecture, shops and famous green dominated by the Holy Trinity Church (once described as the most moving parish church in England). The nearby market towns of Sudbury (3 miles) and the cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds (15 miles) offer a comprehensive range of facilities, the former with a commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street (90 minutes).

A substantial period building which forms part of a former Hall House and is located in the heart of one of East Anglia's most highly regarded villages. The property now benefits from full planning permission to revert to a residential dwelling including the creation of a superb rear extension. Accommodation has been designed to include two reception rooms, a substantial entrance hall, an open plan kitchen/breakfast/family room and a utility and cloakroom. Upstairs are four bedrooms, principal with en-suite and dressing room) and a family bathroom. While the property now benefits from residential planning permission, the building is currently utilised as offices but would also suit retail use, a restaurant, residential etc. (subject to any necessary planning consents). There is the additional benefit of a generous west-facing private, enclosed rear garden and a double garage and off road parking. NO ONWARD CHAIN.
