

WE BRING PEOPLE AND PROPERTY TOGETHER

Byways, The Smea, Hickling, Norfolk, NR12 0YL

A beautifully presented detached three-bedroom bungalow, with no onward chain, that has been comprehensively renovated and transformed by the current owners to create a stylish contemporary home, equally suited as a permanent residence, holiday retreat, or investment opportunity. Occupying a desirable position within the sought-after waterside village of Hickling, the property enjoys an enviable setting on the north-eastern edge of the Norfolk Broads National Park. The village is connected by navigable waterways to Potter Heigham and the wider Broads network, offering access towards the coast and Norfolk's renowned sandy beaches.

Set back from the road, the property is approached via a private road leading to a shingle driveway providing ample off-road parking. A lawned front garden enhances the property's kerb appeal, while to the rear, a covered sun terrace creates the perfect space for outdoor entertaining and relaxation. Beyond, the enclosed garden is and framed by mature hedging and trees, offering a peaceful and private setting to enjoy with family and friends.
