SETTING THE SCENE

Approached via the end of the cul-de-sac there is a hard standing driveway providing ample off road parking for multiple vehicles leading to a secure gate with the single garage beyond the gate. The main entrance door is found to the side off the driveway and into the porch with another entrance door on the other side of the bungalow into the hallway.

THE GRAND TOUR

Entering the bungalow via the main entrance door to the side there is a useful porch entrance with space for coats and shoes and a door into the kitchen. The kitchen provides a range of wall and base level units with rolled edge worktops over with space for oven and various white goods in addition. Within the kitchen there are also built in storage cupboards. A door from the kitchen leads into the main central hallway with another entrance door leading to the other side of the bungalow. To the front is the main dual aspect sitting/dining room which is flooded with light. There is also a very useful inset woodburner within the stone fireplace. Off the hallway you will find a modern wet room/shower room with a walk in shower and w/c. Completing the bungalow are the two ample double bedrooms, one of which has double doors out to the garden and the other has built in wardrobes having been extended to the rear over the years.

AGENTS NOTES

Buyers are advised the loft has spray foam insulation installed in 2018. Buyers should make their own enquiries as to how this might effect a possible mortgage.

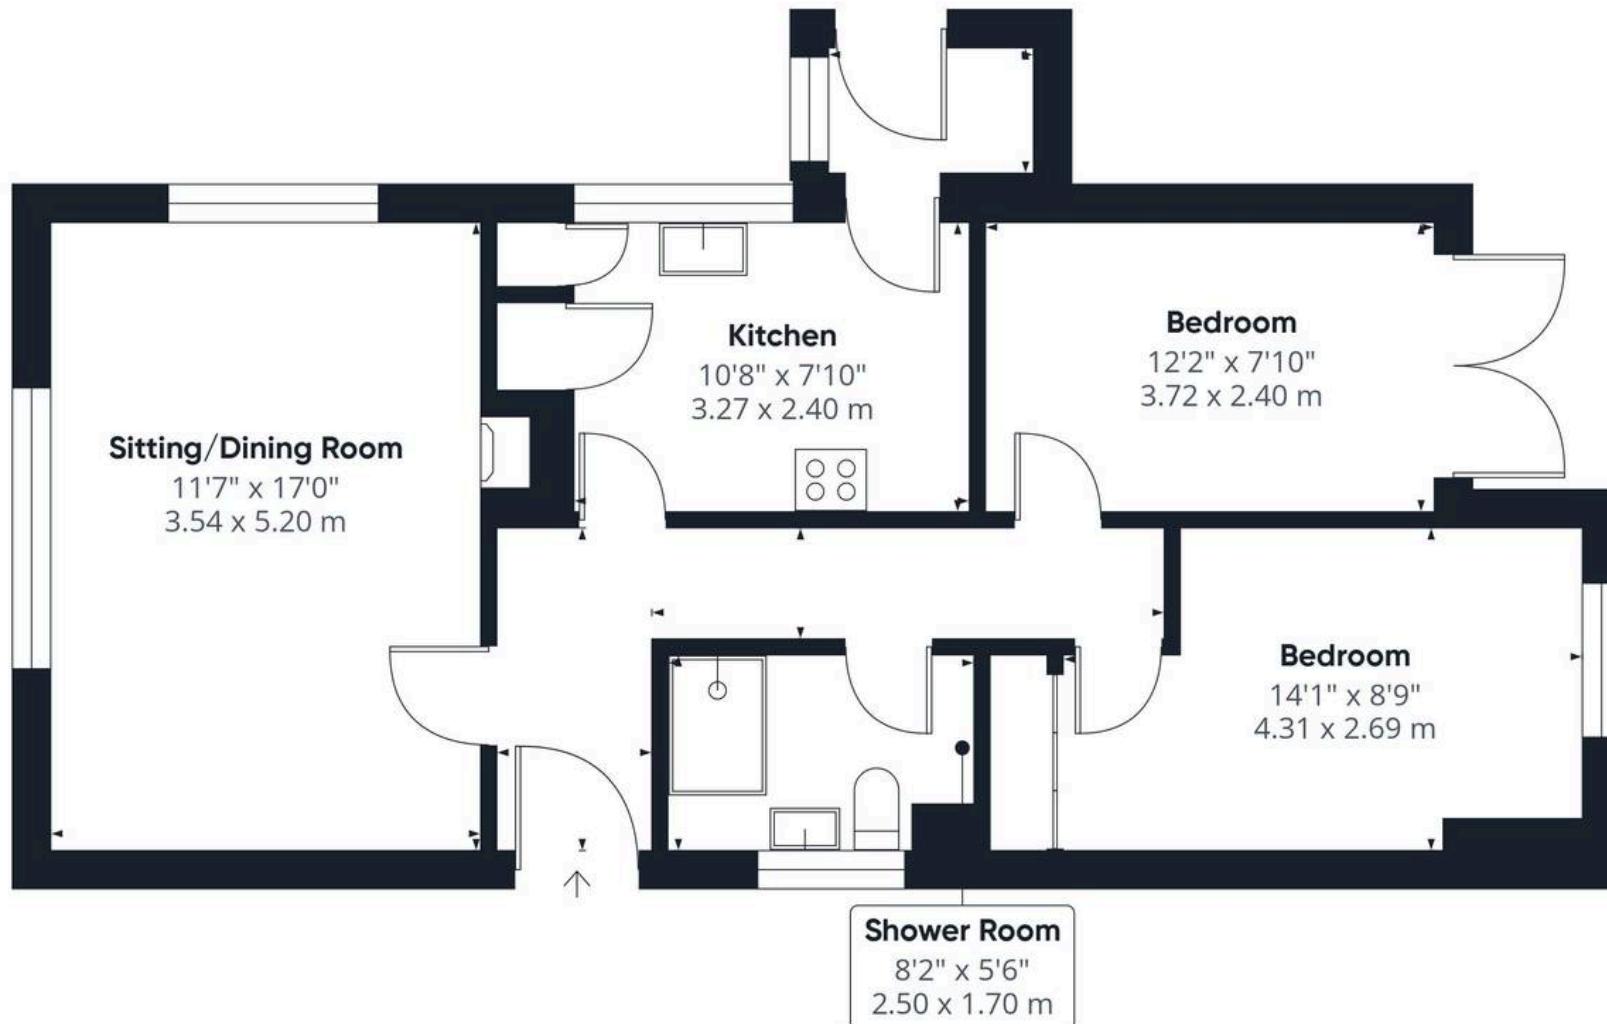

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

The private rear garden is kept in good order with a paved patio area and covered pergola providing a pleasant space for outside dining. There is then an area of lawn flanked by mature planting borders. Beyond is the vegetable patch with raised beds. Within the garden is also the single garage with power and light.
