This Victorian mid-terrace house on Cyprus Road provides exceptional accommodation over two floors and measures 795 sqft in total.

The property has been significantly improved in recent years and creatively finished to showcase attractive period features. Vibrant colour schemes give the property a contemporary finish and enhance all rooms.

The accommodation comprises a charming sitting room with sash window to front aspect, a period fireplace, picture rails and exposed floorboards, which continue through to the dining room. Glazed double doors connect the two reception rooms and there is a useful study area in the dining area. A well-equipped kitchen with solid wood working surfaces and integrated appliances provides access to the rear garden.

Upstairs, the landing area has a built-in double storage cupboard and leads to two spacious and beautifully finished double bedrooms, and a large bathroom suite with a separate shower cubicle.

Outside, there is an enclosed rear garden with paved patio area, lawn and a useful studio space.

Agent's Note
