DESCRIPTION

Welcome to Robins Rest, an exceptional three bedroom barn conversion tucked away on the highly desirable Bridgehouse Lane in Winterley. Set behind gates with stunning rural views, plus a footpath leading to South Cheshire Way through open fields. This is countryside living at its finest—blending character, space and modern luxury.

From the moment you arrive, the impressive driveway and double garage with electric roller doors set the tone. Inside, the home delivers style and flexibility, with spacious reception rooms perfect for entertaining or relaxing. The high-spec kitchen is a real highlight, complemented by a practical utility and boot room.

Upstairs offers two generous double bedrooms, including a sleek en-suite, alongside a contemporary family bathroom. The third bedroom is located to the ground floor, currently utilised as a reception / guest room, and accompanied by a handy downstairs shower room ensuite. A downstairs WC adds further convenience. Throughout the home, quality finishes shine, including stylish bathroom suites with LED demist mirrors.

Packed with charm, exposed beams, vaulted ceilings and skylights create a bright, airy feel while maintaining that cosy barn character. Underfloor heating across the ground floor ensures comfort all year round, with shutters and blinds already in place.

Step outside to a private, enclosed garden—ideal for unwinding or entertaining—with a seating area and shed included. A fully serviced Worcester boiler (just four years old) provides added peace of mind.

Robins Rest is a rare find—combining rural tranquillity with modern living in a truly special setting.
