

17 Arran Road, Stamford, PE9 2XP

This three-bedroom semi-detached house is available to let in Stamford. Neutrally decorated throughout, it offers a practical layout with two reception rooms, providing flexible living and dining space, and a family bathroom serving the bedrooms. The bathroom and kitchen have both been updated to create a modern home, alongside new windows throughout increasing the energy efficiency.

The property is located within Stamford, a historic market town known for its traditional stone buildings, independent shops and a range of amenities. Residents can access supermarkets, cafés, pubs and services in and around the town centre, along with green spaces such as the meadows by the River Welland and several local parks and playing fields.

Stamford has several schools catering for different age groups, along with nurseries and further education options in the wider area. The town also benefits from a selection of leisure facilities, including sports clubs and community venues.
